

Niramaya | Oral Narrative for Counselors

About Mission Niramaya

Mission Niramaya aims to establish Uttar Pradesh as a leading center in the field of Nursing and Paramedical education. It was launched by Hon'ble Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath on 08th October 2022. Under Mission Niramaya, now we will tell you about careers in Nursing and Paramedical sector.

Nursing

What is Nursing?

Nursing is an important part of the medical field on which the healthcare system depends.

Why Nursing?

Nursing has a special identity in the world. Apart from being a social service, nursing is gaining popularity among the youth and an emerging field of employment which helps you earn respect along with a good income.

How to become a Nurse?

You can study to become a nurse by taking admission in a diploma or a degree course. Graduate Diploma courses like ANM (Auxiliary Nurse Midwifery) can help you become a health care worker. Also, you can become an excellent Staff Nurse by pursuing diploma courses like GNM (General Nursing and Midwifery) and degree courses like B.Sc. There are different prescribed qualifications for different courses. More information about this is available on the brochure.

Opportunities in Nursing

Nursing has an important role in many areas. In addition to serving patients, you can provide nursing education to young students by becoming a nursing teacher. One can become a part of the country's service by joining the Indian Army as a Nurse. By becoming a Community Health Officer, you can become the identity of the health system.

Also, there are immense opportunities in nursing abroad. Indian nurses have excellent recognition abroad. Nursing provides a golden opportunity for the students.

Average salary in Nursing

The salary starts from INR 15,000 per month in the private sector and INR 40,000 per month in the government sector.

Now let's move towards the Paramedical sector

Paramedical

What is Paramedical?

The paramedical field is the backbone of medical field which helps in smooth running of the healthcare system. This area fulfills all the technical responsibilities like Testing, Eye Examination, X-ray, MRI, Ultrasound, Lab Technician, Radiologist, Optometrist, Physiotherapist, OT Technician and Dialysis Technician.

Why Paramedical?

The paramedics are the hope for someone's life and companion in the patient's battle with a disease. It can help someone become the backbone of the healthcare system.

How to become a Paramedic?

To become a paramedic, you can either do a diploma or a degree course. You have to study science in class 12th.

Opportunities in Paramedical

More than 12000 new government vacancies will be released soon in the paramedical sector. Also, there is a huge demand for paramedics in private hospitals.

Average salary in Paramedical

The salary starts from INR 15,000 per month in the private sector and INR 19,900 per month in the government sector.

Some videos will be shared with you all. In those videos you will find out the stories of various nurses and paramedics.

निरामयाः

Reforming Human Resource in Health